

JULIE GRIFFITHS

---

State Bar of Michigan ADR Section
Family Mediation Program | 2025

Attorney Julie Griffiths has dedicated over two decades, focusing her legal career on family law and serving clients with compassion and integrity in the Genesee community. She earned her Bachelor of Arts from Michigan State University, followed by her Juris Doctor from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 1988.

With a deep commitment to the legal community, Attorney Griffiths currently serves as President of the Family Law Section of the Genesee County Bar Association. She is also an active member of the State Bar of Michigan appointed to the Family Law Council serving as the Co-Chair for the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee, where she contributes to ongoing discussions and initiatives aimed at improving family law practices across the state.

