

ANDREA BANFIELD

State Bar of Michigan ADR Section
Family Mediation Program | 2025

Attorney Andrea Banfield, of Banfield Couling, Law & Mediation, PLC, is a certified mediator, trained in both traditional and collaborative methods, with experience filing Joint Petitions for Divorce across multiple counties. Her commitment to peaceful conflict resolution and client-centered advocacy has made her a trusted figure in the Michigan legal community.

A proud graduate of Michigan State University College of Law and the Eastern Michigan University Paralegal Program, Attorney Banfield brings practical insight to her practice. She is a respected member of the State Bar of Michigan and currently serves on the Family Law Council, where she is Co-Chair of both the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Committee and the Dedicated Family Court Committee. In these roles, she plays a vital part in shaping policy and improving family law practices across the state.

A passionate advocate for dispute resolution, Attorney Banfield supports pre-filing settlements as an alternative for clients seeking to resolve family matters outside of court. Her dedication to collaborative solutions reflects her broader mission: to help families navigate difficult transitions with dignity, respect, and compassion.

